Instructor
Getting Around Sakai

What is Sakai?

Sakai is a web-based "collaborative learning environment" built to support formal and informal collaboration, ranging from fully online and face-to-face courses to faculty committee work and student clubs. The system provides a range of communication and information management tools designed to facilitate interactions with content, between instructor and students, and peer to peer.

Unique solution ID: #1016
Author: Sristi Shrestha
Last update: 2017-01-23 15:52